

Come along, enjoy and explore your heritage!

A special display at The Guild Hall will feature an exhibition on Duleep Singh, including The Singh Twins' extraordinary painting 'The Casualty of War'

(by special permission of The Ancient House Museum and The National Museums of Scotland)

Speakers:

- The Mayor of Thetford - Cllr Roy Brame
- T S Dhesi MP
- Ravinder Singh Khera
- Balhar Singh Randhawa
- Balvinder Kaur Saund JP
- Avtar Singh
- Cllr S S Sumra
- Christy Campbell

"The firanghis will forget who he was, forget his lost kingdom. They will forget his story, his pain, his mother's broken heart. It will only be a rare son of Punjab who will go all the way to bow before him, to put a flower on his grave, fold his hands and say the Waheguru's prayer for the soul of the Maharaja of Punjab."

From 'The Exile' by Navtej Sarna

This historic outdoor festival will feature:

Display of Rare Sikh Artefacts

Book stalls

Children's Art Workshops with Suman Kaur winner of the BBC Big Draw

Children's Storytelling with Navleen Kaur

Turban Tying with

Military Ancestry Roadshow

for those wanting to research their family history

Food stalls

Visitors will have an opportunity to visit the Elveden Graveyard, Ancient House Museum and the Memorial Statue

Music by:

Bhai Risal Singh ji Dhadhi
Bhai Amrik Singh Luton
Manveer Singh Mani

Poetry by:

Manpreet Singh Badhni
Sukhwinder Singh Gill
Azeem Shekhar
Dalbir Singh Pattar
Sikander Brar
Gurdial Singh Bhogal

